SEMINAR PRESENTERS

DALE RATZLAFF was a fourth generation Seventh-day Adventist and pastored in that denomination 13 years. Near the end of his doctoral program at the Adventist seminary, Pastor Ratzlaff did an in-depth study of the Adventist doctrine of the investigative judgment and the cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary, which Adventists teach started in 1844. He became convinced that this doctrine could not be supported by Scripture, was contrary to clear biblical teaching, and undermined the new covenant gospel of grace. As he could no longer teach this doctrine in clear conscience, Dale Ratzlaff and his wife, Carolyn, left the Adventist denomination. Dale Ratzlaff is the author of Sabbath in Christ, The Cultic Doctrine of Seventh-day Adventism, Truth about Adventist "Truth" and Truth Led Me Out. He is founding editor of Proclamation! and serves on the board of Life Assurance Ministries. Dale and Carolyn—his wife of 52 years—live in Peoria, Arizona, and have two married sons and four grandchildren.

PAUL CARDEN is executive director of The Centers for Apologetics Research. He has devoted his life to cult-related research and outreach in Latin America, Africa, eastern Europe, and the former Soviet Union. In 1980, Paul joined the Christian Research Institute (CRI) under its founder, Walter Martin and served as a missionary in São Paulo, Brazil, and later co-hosted the live, nationwide "Bible Answer Man" radio broadcast alongside Ron Rhodes, Robert M. Bowman Jr., Kenneth Samples, and other noted apologists. Paul's articles have appeared in such publications as Evangelical Missions Quarterly, East-West Church and Ministry Report, International Journal of Frontier Missions, and World Pulse. He has served on the editorial board of the Cultic Studies Review and is contributing editor of the weekly Apologia Report. Paul and his wife, Lisa, have four children.
